Richard Alan's program is powerful, unique and transformative. In the last 10 years I have been very inquisitive about how life 'really works' and how to lead a fun and fulfilling great life. I have read numerous metaphysical books, attended personal growth workshops... you name it, I've done it. Richard comes at life's challenges from a very different perspective, and he offers verifiable processes that not only teach you, but transforms and stays with you.

I was interested in finding greater trust in myself, in the decisions I make about my family and my future. Through the e-Games he has developed, I have more certainty and clarity about who I am in the world, and how to play on a much larger stage. Life seems to have smoothed out, and while problems will never go away, handling them has become quite easy. He calls it peaceful awareness. This is good stuff.

What I like is the way I feel clearer...how vivid things look...a beautiful glow permeating my body... I am present ...more aware. Richard makes me stretch. He is the greatest coach. I feel more empowered. I have had an entire shift in attitude.

Richard is a wizard at what he does. I have never talked with anyone like him that has such an understanding of the movement of conscious energy. Richard is unique. During sessions with Richard I'm constantly amazed how the ideas of the e-games percolate out and become manifested as part of the Program that increases awareness on an ever growing basis. Through the practice of the program I feel an expansion of consciousness and I am less judgmental in relation to others. The Empowerment program is a must for anyone on the path to enlightenment.

I like it all! I feel so centered and peaceful. I have learned how to take letting go and forgiveness to the next level. I have experienced the true value of being Present. I like the e-Games, connecting, and activating my intentions at will. I have more confidence to return to be "Present" and a greater ability to remove myself more quickly from the "disconnect state" where all the limiting thoughts exist. I am very grateful. Thank you Richard!

Here's what I have to say about my friend, Richard. His integrity is impeccable. He walks the extra mile with you. He always asks if you would like his guidance before he gives it. It's Richard's encouragement and belief in me that has enabled me to believe in myself. It is his belief that I can channel the Angels in my healing practice that has enabled me to be successful in what I thought I couldn't do. And when I'm "stuck", his e-Program un-sticks me and my life begins to move forward once again.

Richard acts as a conduit between Highest Love and Highest Action, vacuuming out whatever we are ready to let go of... always at our speed, never at Richard's speed.

His program is quick and easy! It makes me feel more peaceful and restores me to Love. I like the way I learned to think inter-dimensionally. Richard is the man!

I can't tell you how amazing last Friday's session was for me. Thank you soooo much. Making the heart connection with God and with the horse moved me to tears (in a very good way)... It was so amazing Richard. I have always wanted to communicate with animals and always believed that I could, but until that day I had never been able to experience it. Thank You for that.

Richard, thank you for The Empowerment Program. The Golden Orb is so effortless to do! Learning it, I had no doubt and no resistance. I was transported to the causal world. Thank you for designing The Program with Divine Love, Wisdom, and Skill.

When you guide me, grace and ease naturally happens. I feel so peaceful, mindful, and comfortable. Richard, you are a Master. I am deeply grateful to you for being my spiritual friend and spiritual teacher.

After each session with Richard I emerge in gratitude. I am re-presented to my inner power and to the light of my core self. In each session layers are peeled away uncovering my true essence. It is as if I am climbing out of a cocoon and awakening to All That Is. Finding my self, in that moment, is magical. Thank You for that!

~ Harriet Dunkerley, Warrior Mom, senpaifoxglove@aol.com

Since starting Richard's program, I have enjoyed a lot more efficiency in my activities. I am getting stuff done instead of just thinking about it and ruminating over it. I feel more grounded and clear, also more fulfilled.

It's hard to say what's due to Richard's classes and what's due to other things; however, everything I said is true no matter what the cause. Someday, I'll be able to say I knew Richard when he still taught all his sessions. I got the personal attention and such a bargain price.

Richard's focus and commitment to his work has brought me to new spiritual heights. After over 35 years of meditating, I feel that adding Richard's program to my daily practice has enabled me to develop at a faster rate. It has given me a stronger sense of self, spirituality and grace.

Since working with Richard, my already successful business has glided to higher levels of profitability.

Just when I thought that I knew something about life, I meet Richard and my journey really began. I now know myself at levels that exceeded previous understandings. I am now more present in my life and I am able to stay connected. I now truly love my self. To take the ride of your life, see Richard.

~ Phyllis O'Laughlin, Phyllis' Store Vitamins & more!, phyllisvitamins@yahoo.com

The "issues" or "upsets", as Richard calls them, seem to matter less or not at all. I am becoming freer as a result. With my whole heart, I can tell you that I trust Richard completely and count on his ability to do what he says he can do.

~ Holly Hill, founder, The Essence of Yoga chooseonceagain@yahoo.com

Richard is able to assist me to reach a higher state of balance with grace and ease. Richard is naturally skilled in bringing my whole being into the feeling state of All That Is.

~ Jerome Gross, Master Yoga Instructor prakasheffulgence@yahoo.com

I really, really, really love the peace I now feel from your program. I didn't have to wait for results; they happened quickly.. It's amazing. Richard gave me the tools and by working with me, has enhanced the confidence I needed to "be" empowered. Many thanks to Richard and to Guidance!

~ Tracy Watkins, kittythai61@hotmail.com

My outer life was pretty good and my spiritual practice was bringing e much bliss and divine guidance. So I thought Richard could offer me nothing.

But Richard has helped me to consciously shift my bliss, previously wasted on worry and anger to fulfilling my purpose in this world.

~ Bill Pearce, Engineer and manager

Richard's empowering work is amazingly simple! It is much easier for me to let go of judging myself. I also notice how much more aware I am of living from love. This "Wizard's" offering is a precious gift! .
